UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SAMUEL KELLER, et al.,
Plaintiffs,

v.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION; COLLEGIATE
LICENSING COMPANY; and
ELECTRONIC ARTS INC.,
Defendants.

Case No. 09-cv-1967 CW

ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION
SETTLEMENT WITH DEFENDANT
ELECTRONIC ARTS INC.

EDWARD O'BANNON, et al.,
Plaintiffs,

v.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC
LICENSING COMPANY; and
ELECTRONIC ARTS INC.,
Defendants.

Case No. 09-cv-3329 CW

1 The Right of Publicity Plaintiffs and Antitrust Plaintiffs have entered into an Amended
2 Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release with Defendant Electronic Arts Inc. (“EA”)
3 (“Settlement” or “EA Videogame Settlement”) to settle all claims that have been or could have
4 been brought against EA and the Collegiate Licensing Company (“CLC”) in the above-captioned
5 lawsuits, and all of those lawsuits listed in the Settlement Agreement (“Lawsuits”). The 6 Settlement Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions of a proposed Settlement and dismissal
7 with prejudice of the Lawsuits as to EA and CLC.

8 On May 30, 2014, the Parties submitted to the Court their original proposed settlement
9 agreement and related papers (Dkt. 1108). On July 3, 2014, the Court conducted a telephone
10 status hearing to provide its comments on those papers. As a result of that status hearing, the 11 Parties submitted their current Settlement Agreement and related preliminary approval papers.
12 (Dkt. 1158). On July 24, 2014, the Court held a preliminary approval hearing and provided the 13 Parties with additional comments on the proposed class notices. (Dkt. 1174). The parties
14 thereafter submitted revised proposed class notices for the Court’s review.

15 This Court also has before it a motion for preliminary approval of a proposed class action
16 settlement in Keller v. NCAA, et. al. between the Right of Publicity Plaintiffs and NCAA
17 (“NCAA Videogame Settlement”). The two proposed class action settlements both concern the 18 alleged use and licensing of NCAA football and men’s basketball players’ names, images and 19 likenesses in certain NCAA-Branded Videogames. The parties to both settlements have 20 coordinated, to the extent feasible, the notice and claims administration of both settlements.
21 Because the two settlements are separate, however, the Court will issue separate orders in each
22 settlement, and will evaluate each proposed settlement on its own terms.

23 Regarding this proposed Settlement, the Court has carefully considered the Amended
24 Settlement together with all exhibits thereto, all filings related to the Settlement, the arguments of 25 counsel, and the record in this case. The Court hereby gives its preliminary approval of the EA
26 Videogame Settlement; finds that the Settlement and Settlement Agreement are sufficiently fair,
27 reasonable and adequate to allow dissemination of notice of the Settlement to the Settlement
28 Class and to hold a Fairness Hearing; orders that Class Notice be sent to the Settlement Class in

1 accordance with the Settlement Agreement and this Order; and schedules a Fairness Hearing to 2 determine whether the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

4 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

5 1. The Settlement Agreement is hereby incorporated by reference in this Order, and
6 all terms or phrases used in this Order shall have the same meaning as in the Settlement
7 Agreement.

8 2. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter and parties to this proceeding
9 under 28 U.S.C. § 1332.

10 3. Venue is proper in this district.

11 4. The Court preliminarily approves the Settlement, together with all of its Exhibits,
12 as sufficiently fair, reasonable and adequate to warrant providing notice to the Settlement Class.
13 Exhibits B and C to the Settlement Agreement (the proposed class notices) are approved as 14 amended by Exhibits 1 and 2 to this Order; except that the language highlighted as Alt. A and Alt.
15 B in the notices shall be amended to read: “The Court found that the NCAA violated antitrust law
16 and entered an injunction. The NCAA has appealed. The Court’s opinion can be found at 17 [Settlement Website].”

18 5. The Court preliminarily certifies for settlement only the following Settlement
19 Classes pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23:

20 (a) Antitrust Class Members: All current and former student-athletes residing 21 in the United States who competed on an NCAA Division I (formerly known as 22 “University Division” before 1973) college or university men’s basketball team or on an 23 NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly known as Division I-A until 2006) men’s 24 football team and whose images, likenesses and/or names allegedly have been included or 25 could have been included (by virtue of their appearance in a team roster) in or used in 26 connection with NCAA-Branded Videogames published or distributed from July 21, 2005
27 until September 3, 2014. Excluded from the class are EA, CLC, the NCAA, and their 28 officers, directors, legal representatives, heirs, successors, and wholly or partly owned

1 subsidiaries or affiliated companies, class counsel and their employees, and the judicial
2 officers, and associated court staff assigned to cases listed in paragraph I of the Settlement
3 Agreement.

4 (b) Hart/Alston Right of Publicity Class Members: All NCAA football and
5 basketball players listed on the roster of a school whose team was included in an NCAA-
6 Branded Videogame originally published or distributed during the period May 4, 2003 to 7 May 4, 2007 and whose assigned jersey number appears on a virtual player in the 8 software, or whose likeness was otherwise included in the software. Excluded from the
9 class are EA, CLC, the NCAA, and their officers, directors, legal representatives, heirs,
10 successors, and wholly or partly owned subsidiaries or affiliated companies, Class
11 Counsel and their employees, and the judicial officers, and associated court staff assigned
12 to cases listed in paragraph I of the Settlement Agreement.

13 (c) Keller Right of Publicity Class Members: All NCAA football and
14 basketball players listed on the roster of a school whose team was included in an NCAA-
15 Branded Videogame originally published or distributed during the period May 5, 2007 to 16 September 3, 2014 and whose assigned jersey number appears on a virtual player in the 17 software, or whose likeness was otherwise included in the software. Excluded from the
18 class are EA, CLC, the NCAA, and their officers, directors, legal representatives, heirs,
19 successors, and wholly or partly owned subsidiaries or affiliated companies, Class
20 Counsel and their employees, and the judicial officers, and associated court staff assigned
21 to cases listed in paragraph I of the Settlement Agreement.

22 6. The Court finds, for purposes of preliminary approval and for settlement purposes
23 only, that the Settlement Class described above satisfies the following factors of Federal Rule of 24 Civil Procedure 23:

25 (a) Numerosity: Class Counsel estimate that over 100,000 individuals have 26 potential claims. This satisfies the Rule 23(a)(1) numerosity requirement.

27 (b) Commonality: The threshold for commonality under Rule 23(a)(2) is not
28 high and a single common issue will suffice. Plaintiffs allege, among other things,

1 antitrust and right of publicity claims related to Defendants' license, use, and/or sale of 2 class members' name, image, and likeness rights without compensation. This issue is 3 common to the Settlement Class.

4 (c) Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of the Settlement Class
5 and satisfy Rule 23(a)(3).

6 (d) Adequacy: There are no conflicts of interest between Plaintiffs and 7 Settlement Class Members and Plaintiffs have retained competent counsel to represent the 8 Settlement Class. Class Counsel regularly engage in complex litigation similar to the 9 present case and have dedicated substantial resources to the prosecution of this matter.
10 The adequacy requirement is satisfied.

11 (e) There is predominance and superiority. The common legal and factual
12 issue listed in the preliminary approval papers predominate all over other issues.
13 Resolution of the common question constitutes a significant part of Plaintiffs' and 14 Settlement Class Members' claims. Further, because the Settlement Class is being 15 certified for purposes of settlement only, the Court need not consider factors that might 16 render a class action unmanageable.

17 7. The Court's findings regarding the class certification requirements of Rule 23 are 18 subject to the Fairness Hearing and are made without prejudice to the facts, record, and argument
19 that will be before the Court in connection with any class proposed for litigation of any remaining 20 claims against any other party.

21 8. The Court grants leave to file the Fourth Amended Complaint in the form attached
22 as Exhibit E to the EA Videogame Settlement. The Court approves of adding and/or including the 23 New Jersey Plaintiffs and claims for settlement and approval purposes.

24 9. The Court appoints the following people as Class Representatives for the Antitrust
25 Class: Edward C. O'Bannon Jr., Oscar Robertson, William Russell, Harry Flournoy, Alex
26 Gilbert, Sam Jacobson, Thad Jaracz, David Lattin, Patrick Maynor, Tyrone Prothro, Damien
27 Rhodes, Eric Riley, Bob Tallent, Danny Wimprine, Ray Ellis, Tate George, Jake Fischer, Jake
28 Smith, Darius Robinson, Moses Alipate, and Chase Garnham. The Court appoints the following

1 people as Class Representatives for the Keller Right of Publicity Class: Samuel Michael Keller,
2 Bryan Cummings, LaMarr Watkins, and Bryon Bishop. The Court appoints Ryan Hart and
3 Shawne Alston as Class Representatives for the Hart/Alston Right of Publicity Class.

4 10. The Court appoints the following law firms as Class Counsel: Hausfeld LLP,
5 Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP, The McKenna Law Firm LLC, and Lum, Positan & Drasco
6 LLP.

7 11. The Court appoints Gilardi & Co. LLC as the Notice and Claims Administrator,
8 which shall administer the Settlement in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Order
9 and the Settlement Agreement.

10 12. The Court has reviewed and approves the Settlement Notices, the form of which 11 shall be without material alteration from Exhibits 1 and 2 to this Order.

12 13. The Court has reviewed and approves the Claim Form, the content of which shall 13 be without material alteration from Exhibit D to the Settlement Agreement. To be considered
14 timely, a Claim Form must be submitted by a Settlement Class Member or that Settlement Class
15 Member's Legally Authorized Representative so that it is postmarked and mailed to the Notice
16 and Claims Administrator, or submitted online via the settlement website, by no later than two 17 weeks before the Fairness Hearing, that is, by April 30, 2015. Any Claim Form postmarked or 18 submitted after this date shall be untimely and invalid. A Settlement Class Member may choose
19 to file a single Claim Form to be considered for payment in both the NCAA Videogame
20 Settlement and this Settlement, unless the Settlement Class Member has excluded himself from 21 one of the two settlements (in which case, his Claim Form will be considered for payment only in 22 the settlement from which he did not exclude himself), or unless the Settlement Class Member
23 indicates on the Claim Form that he wishes to submit a claim in only one settlement.

24 14. The Court approves the Settlement Agreement's Class Notice plan. As part of that 25 Class Notice plan, in coordination with the NCAA Videogame Settlement, the NCAA will 26 request that its member institutions and affiliated alumni associations provide to the Notice and 27 Claims Administrator reasonably ascertainable information regarding the names and last-known
28 addresses of NCAA football and basketball players who were listed on a roster published or

1 issued by a school whose team was included in an NCAA-Branded Videogame originally
2 published or distributed during the Settlement Class Period. To the extent that a member
3 institution or affiliated alumni association declines to provide such information, Class Counsel
4 shall endeavor in good faith to obtain such information, including by subpoenaing if necessary
5 such member institution and affiliated alumni association for that information (to the extent it has 6 not already done so), and shall forward any information received to the Notice and Claims
7 Administrator. All names and addresses obtained through these sources shall be protected as 8 confidential and not used for purposes other than the notice and administration of this Settlement,
9 or as otherwise ordered by law.

10 15. The Court directs the Notice and Claims Administrator to disseminate the 11 Settlement Notices in the following manner, which satisfies the requirements of Federal Rule of 12 Civil Procedure 23 and due process:

13 (a) Within 120 days following entry of the Preliminary Approval Order
14 (“Mailed Notice Date”), the Administrator shall mail, or cause to be mailed, copies of the 15 Notice of Settlement of Class Action, by first class United States mail, postage prepaid, to 16 all potential Settlement Class Members at the most recent address obtained by the 17 methods described in the Notice Plan.

18 (b) The Administrator shall also create and manage a content-neutral
19 settlement website where settlement-related documents, such as the Settlement, the Notice
20 of Settlement of Class Action, court-filed documents, and case updates and information
21 shall be posted. The website shall also have an online means of submitting a Claim Form.

22 (c) The Administrator shall also create and manage a toll-free number with an
23 automated system providing information about the Settlement, with the ability to request
24 copies of the Settlement Notice or the Settlement, and to speak with live operators.

25 (d) In addition, the Court orders the parties to implement the plan for 26 publication notice described in Paragraph 78 of the Settlement. The Court has reviewed
27 and approves the Summary Notice of Class Action, the content of which shall be without 28 material alternation from Exhibit C to the Settlement.

1 16. Gilardi & Co. LLC is directed to perform all other responsibilities under the 2 Notice Plan assigned to the Administrator.

3 17. The Court finds that the Class Notice plan, including the form, content, and 4 method of dissemination of the Class Notice to Settlement Class Members as described in the 5 Settlement Agreement, (i) is the best practicable notice; (ii) is reasonably calculated, under the 6 circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Lawsuits and of their 7 right to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement; (iii) is reasonable and
8 constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to receive notice; and (iv)
9 meets all applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and due process.

10 18. The Court approves the procedures set forth in the Settlement Agreement and the 11 Notice of Settlement of Class Action for exclusions from and objections to the Settlement. Unlike 12 Claim Forms, exclusion requests and objections must be submitted separately for this Settlement
13 and for the EA Settlement.

14 19. The Court preliminarily enjoins all Settlement Class Members and their Legally
15 Authorized Representatives, unless and until they submit a timely request for exclusion pursuant 16 to the Settlement Agreement, (i) from filing, commencing, prosecuting, intervening in, or 17 participating as plaintiff, claimant, or class member in any other lawsuit or administrative,
18 regulatory, arbitration, or other proceeding in any jurisdiction based on the Released Claims; (ii)
19 from filing, commencing, or prosecuting a lawsuit or administrative, regulatory, arbitration, or 20 other proceeding as a class action on behalf of any Settlement Class Members (including by 21 seeking to amend a pending complaint to include class allegations or seeking class certification in 22 a pending action), based on the Released Claims; and (iii) from attempting to effect an opt-out of 23 a group, class, or subclass of individuals in any lawsuit or administrative, regulatory, arbitration,
24 or other proceeding based on the Released Claims.

25 20. The Court directs that a hearing be scheduled for May 14, 2015 at 2:00 p.m. (the 26 “Fairness Hearing”) to assist the Court in determining whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable
27 and adequate; whether Final Judgment should be entered dismissing with prejudice Defendants
28 EA and CLC in the above-captioned action and any other actions by Settlement Class Members

1 pending before this Court; whether Class Counsel's application for fees and expenses should be
2 approved; and whether Class Counsel's request for incentive payments to the Class
3 Representatives should be approved.

4 21. Each Settlement Class Member who has not submitted a timely request for 5 exclusion from the Settlement Class, and any governmental entity, who wishes to object to the 6 fairness, reasonableness, or adequacy of the Settlement Agreement or any term or aspect of the 7 proposed settlement must mail to the Notice and Claims Administrator (who shall forward it to 8 Class Counsel and Counsel for EA and CLC) and file with the Court no later than 60 days after 9 the Mailed Notice Date a statement of the objection, as well as the specific legal and factual
10 reasons for each objection, or be forever barred from objection. The objection must comply with 11 Paragraphs 88–90 of the Settlement Agreement and the Notice of Settlement of Class Action, and 12 contain at least the following: (1) the objector's full name, address, telephone number, and 13 signature; (2) a heading that refers to the EA Videogame Settlement; (3) a statement of the 14 specific legal and factual basis for each objection; and (4) a statement whether the objecting
15 Person or entity intends to appear at the Fairness Hearing, either in person or through counsel
16 and, if through counsel, a statement identifying that counsel by name, bar number, address, and 17 telephone number. All objections shall be signed by the objecting Settlement Class Member (or 18 his Legally Authorized Representative), even if the Settlement Class Member is represented by 19 counsel.

20 22. The Court further directs that any Settlement Class Member may appear at the 21 Fairness Hearing, either in person or through personal counsel, retained at the Settlement Class
22 Member's expense, to voice an objection to the Settlement or to Class Counsel's application for 23 fees and expenses or request for incentive payments.

24 23. The Court further directs that any person within the Settlement Class definition
25 who wishes to be excluded from the Settlement Class must mail a written Request for Exclusion
26 to the Administrator postmarked on or before the Opt-Out Deadline. Any Request for Exclusion
27 must include the name of the person seeking exclusion and a statement that he requests exclusion
28 from the class and does not wish to participate in the Settlement. Requests for exclusion must be

1 exercised individually by a Settlement Class Member, not as or on behalf of a group, class, or
2 subclass, except that such exclusion requests may be submitted on behalf of an individual
3 Settlement Class Member by that Settlement Class Member's Legally Authorized Representative.

4 24. The cost of providing Notice, as provided for by this Order and the Settlement,
5 shall be paid from the Notice and Administration Fund and from the Settlement Fund if the cost
6 of providing Notice exceeds the amount in the Notice and Administration Fund.

7 25. The Court further directs the Administrator to promptly provide unredacted copies
8 of any Requests for Exclusion, and any withdrawals thereof, to EA, CLC, and Class Counsel.
9 Prior to the Fairness Hearing, the Administrator will file with the Court a report identifying all 10 persons making Requests for Exclusion not thereafter timely withdrawn and the date on which 11 each request was postmarked (or if there is no legible postmark date, the date received by the 12 Administrator). A copy of the report will be provided to EA, CLC, and Class Counsel, who will 13 keep the report confidential.

14 26. Neither the Settlement, nor any exhibit, document or instrument delivered
15 thereunder shall be construed as or deemed to be evidence of an admission or concession by EA,
16 CLC, or the other Released Parties of an interpretation of, any liability or wrongdoing by EA or 17 CLC, or of the truth of any allegations asserted by Plaintiffs, Settlement Class Members or any 18 other person.

19 27. The Court finds that the Settlement, along with all related drafts, motions, court 20 papers, conversations, negotiations, mediations and correspondence, including statements made in 21 mediations or written submissions to the mediator, constitute an offer to compromise and a
22 compromise within the meaning of Federal Rule of Evidence 408, California Rule of Evidence
23 1152 and any equivalent rule of evidence of any state; and are privileged under Section 1119 of 24 the California Evidence Code.

25 28. Except as explicitly provided in the Settlement Agreement, neither the 26 Settlement—approved or not approved—nor any exhibit, document or instrument delivered
27 thereunder, nor any statement, transaction or proceeding in connection with the negotiation,
28 execution or implementation of the Settlement, shall be admissible in evidence in this or any

1 other proceeding for any purpose, including as evidence. Without limitation of the foregoing,
2 nothing contained in the Settlement, approved or not approved, nor any exhibit, document or 3 instrument delivered thereunder, nor any statement, transaction or proceeding in connection with
4 the negotiation, execution or implementation of the Settlement, shall be given any form of res
5 judicata, collateral estoppel or judicial estoppel effect against EA, CLC or the other Released
6 Parties in any administrative or judicial forum or proceeding.

7 29. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Settlement, any order granting preliminary or 8 final approval of the Settlement and any appellate decision affirming Final Judgment is 9 admissible as follows.

10 (a) The Settlement is admissible by any Party for the purpose of obtaining 11 approval of, implementing and/or enforcing the Settlement.

12 (b) The Settlement, any order granting preliminary or final approval to the 13 Settlement, any appellate decision affirming Final Judgment, and any proceedings and 14 submissions in connection with this Settlement are admissible for purposes of determining 15 Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees and costs or in connection with any appeal
16 of an award of Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs in this Action.

17 (c) If finally approved, the Settlement, any order granting preliminary or final
18 approval of the Settlement and any appellate decision affirming any order of this Court
19 with respect to the Settlement, may be pleaded by EA, CLC, or the Released Parties as a 20 full and complete defense (including any defense based upon release, res judicata, or 21 injunction) to any action, suit or other proceeding that has been or may be instituted,
22 prosecuted or attempted with respect to any of the Released Claims; and the Settlement,
23 any order granting preliminary or final approval to the Settlement and any appellate
24 decision affirming this Final Judgment, or any other proceedings in connection therewith,
25 may be filed, offered or submitted by EA, CLC, or the Released Parties or otherwise used
26 to support such defense.

27 30. If the Settlement is not finally approved, or the Effective Date does not occur, or 28 the Settlement is terminated under its terms, then (a) all parties will proceed as if the Settlement

1 (except those provisions that, by their terms, expressly survive disapproval or termination of the 2 Settlement) had not been executed and the related orders and judgment had not been entered,
3 preserving in that event all of their respective claims and defenses in the Action; and (b) all
4 releases given will be null and void. In such an event, this Court's orders regarding the 5 Settlement, including this Preliminary Approval Order, shall not be used or referred to in 6 litigation for any purpose. Nothing in the foregoing paragraph is intended to alter the terms of the 7 Settlement Agreement with respect to the effect of the Settlement Agreement if it is not approved.

8 31. The Court further directs that the following deadlines are established by this 9 Preliminary Approval Order:

10 Mailed Notice Date: within 120 days following entry of this Preliminary Approval Order

11 Opt-Out Deadline: 60 days after Mailed Notice Date

12 Objection Deadline: 60 days after Mailed Notice Date

13 Fairness Hearing: May 14, 2015, 2:00 p.m.

14 (This date could change. The parties should check the Court's website 15 to confirm.)

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

If You Were Listed on a Roster of an NCAA Division I Men’s Football or Basketball Team, and That Team Was Included in One of EA’s Videogames Between May 4, 2003 and [preliminary approval date], You Could Be Affected by Two Proposed Class Action Settlements.

A federal court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

If you are a Class Member, your legal rights are affected whether you act or don’t act.

Please Read This Notice and the Enclosed Claim Form Carefully

This Notice provides information about two proposed class action settlements concerning the alleged use of National Collegiate Athletic Association (“NCAA”) men’s football and basketball players’ names, images, and likenesses in certain NCAA-Branded Videogames that were manufactured and distributed by Electronic Arts Inc. (“EA”).

The EA Videogame Settlement:

There are class action lawsuits pending against EA and Collegiate Licensing Company LLC (“CLC”). These lawsuits involve, among other things, claims by student-athletes that EA and CLC (representing various NCAA member schools and sometimes the NCAA) violated their legal rights by allegedly licensing, using, and/or selling athletes’ names, images, and likenesses in EA’s NCAA-Branded Videogames. EA and CLC deny these allegations and deny any other wrongdoing. The Court has not ruled on the merits of these claims. See Question 2, below, for more information about these lawsuits.

A proposed settlement of $40 million has been reached between EA and the student-athletes who brought these cases. If the Court approves it, the EA Videogame Settlement will resolve these cases as to both EA and CLC.

The NCAA Videogame Settlement:

There are class action lawsuits pending against the NCAA. These lawsuits involve, among other things, claims by student-athletes that the NCAA violated their legal rights by allegedly participating in the license, use, and/or sale of athletes’ names, images, and likenesses in EA’s NCAA-Branded Videogames. The NCAA denies these allegations and denies any other wrongdoing. The Court has not yet ruled in favor of either the NCAA or the student-athletes on these claims. See Question 2, below, for more information on these lawsuits.

A proposed settlement of $20 million has been reached between the NCAA and the student-athletes who brought some of these cases. If the Court approves it, the NCAA Videogame Settlement will resolve these cases as to the NCAA.

YOU MAY BE A MEMBER OF ONE OR BOTH CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS. Although the two proposed settlements are similar in some respects, they contain different provisions, and it is possible that the

Are these settlements related to the trial against the NCAA I’ve heard about?

You may have heard recently about a trial in a case by student-athletes (led by Edward O’Bannon) against the NCAA. Although the trial involved claims that the NCAA used student-athlete likenesses without permission, those claims were against the NCAA only for violations of antitrust laws. Also, unlike the claims being resolved by this settlement, the claims in the trial involved a request for injunctive relief (a court order discontinuing certain practices). The claims in the trial did not involve claims for cash payments for past conduct.

[Alt. A:] The trial in that case ended on June 27, 2014, and on August 8, the Court granted in part and denied in part the student-athletes’ requested injunction, and the decision is available for review at [Settlement Website]. The NCAA has appealed. [Alt. B:] The trial in that case ended on June 27, 2014, and the Court ruled in favor of the student-athletes. The decision is available for review at [Settlement Website].

Court could rule differently on each settlement. Please read this entire Notice carefully to make sure that you understand both settlements.

The Court in charge of these cases still has to decide whether to approve these settlements, and payments will only be made if the Court approves the settlements, and after any appeals are resolved. Please be patient, as this process can take a long time.

SUMMARY OF YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THE TWO SETTLEMENTS
SUBMIT A CLAIM FORM	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This is the only way to get a payment under the settlements. • You can submit one Claim Form for both settlements. • See the enclosed Claim Form for more details. • Requesting or Receiving a Payment Under Either of These Settlements Will NOT Affect Your NCAA Eligibility.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM ONE OR BOTH SETTLEMENTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Excluding yourself means you get no payment. • This is the only way you can ever be a part of any other case against EA, CLC, or the NCAA about the claims being resolved by these settlements. • You must submit a separate request for exclusion for each settlement. • See Questions 16–18.
OBJECT TO ONE OR BOTH SETTLEMENTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Write to the Court about why you don't like the settlements. • You must submit a separate objection for each settlement. • You cannot object in order to ask the Court for a higher payment for yourself personally, although you can object to the payment terms (or any other terms) that apply generally to the Class. • See Questions 21–22.
GO TO A HEARING	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ask to speak in Court about the fairness of the settlements. • The Court will hold a hearing for both settlements on the same day to decide whether to approve the settlements. • See Question 23.
DO NOTHING	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Get no payment. Give up rights.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did I get this Notice?

You may have been on the roster of an NCAA Division I men's basketball or football team that was included in one of EA's NCAA-Branded Videogames from May 4, 2003 through [preliminary approval date], and you therefore may be a Member of one or both settlements. The fact that you have received this Notice does not necessarily mean that you are a Class Member in either settlement. See Questions 5–7 for more details on how you can determine if you are a Class Member in the settlements.

You were sent this Notice because, as a possible Class Member, you have a right to know about the two proposed class action settlements, and about all your options, before the Court decides whether to give “final approval” to the settlements. If the Court approves the settlements, payments will be made to those who qualify, but only after any objections and appeals are resolved.

This Notice explains the various lawsuits, the settlements, your legal rights, what benefits are available under the settlements, who is eligible for them, and how to get them. You must submit a valid Claim Form to receive a payment under these settlements. See Questions 11–15 for more details on Claim Forms and the deadline to submit them.

2. What are these lawsuits about?

There are class action cases pending against EA, CLC, and the NCAA. These cases deal with the alleged use of NCAA men's football and basketball players' names, images, and likenesses in EA's NCAA-Branded Videogames. These cases involve different claims and time periods. Generally speaking, though, the cases allege, among other things, that the NCAA, CLC, and EA violated the legal rights of student-athletes by using their names, images, and likenesses in EA's Videogames since May 4, 2003, both during and after the student-athletes' involvement in NCAA athletics.

EA, CLC, and the NCAA have denied the claims and have asserted various defenses to the claims.

3. What is a class action and who are the Parties?

In a class action lawsuit, one or more people, called “Class Representatives,” sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All these people together are a “Class” or “Class Members.” One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who choose to exclude themselves from the Class (see Question 16).

The Class Representatives (or “Plaintiffs”) in the cases involved in these settlements are or were all NCAA student-athletes:

- The Class Representatives in the EA Videogame Settlement are Edward C. O'Bannon Jr., Oscar Robertson, William Russell, Harry Flournoy, Alex Gilbert, Sam Jacobson, Thad Jaracz, David Lattin, Patrick Maynor, Tyrone Prothro, Damien Rhodes, Eric Riley, Bob Tallent, Danny Wimprine, Ray Ellis, Tate George, Jake Fischer, Jake Smith, Darius Robinson, Moses Alipate, Chase Garnham, Samuel Michael Keller, Bryan Cummings, LaMarr Watkins, Bryon Bishop, Ryan Hart, and Shawne Alston.
- The Class Representatives in the NCAA Videogame Settlement are Samuel Michael Keller, Bryan Cummings, LaMarr Watkins, and Bryon Bishop.

The Defendants, or people being sued, in the cases are EA, CLC, and the NCAA.

Together, the Class Representatives and the Defendants are called the “Parties.”

4. Why is there a settlement?

EA, CLC, and NCAA have denied all liability in the lawsuits and have asserted various defenses to Plaintiffs' claims. The Court did not decide in favor of any Plaintiff or any Defendant on the legal claims being resolved here. Instead, all sides agreed to a settlement, which avoids the risk and cost of a trial, but still compensates the people affected. The Class Representatives and their attorneys think that both settlements are in the best interests of Class Members and that both settlements are fair, adequate, and reasonable.

WHO IS IN THE TWO SETTLEMENTS

To see if you are affected by the two proposed settlements, you first have to determine if you are a Class Member in one or both settlements.

5. How do I know if I am part of the settlements? What are the Class definitions?

If you fall under the Class definition below for a settlement, you are a Class Member in that settlement and may be eligible for a cash payment. See Questions 9–15 for more details about how the amount of your payment will be calculated. You may be a Class Member in both settlements.

EA Videogame Settlement: Any NCAA Division I football and men's basketball player who (1) was listed on a roster published or issued by a school whose team was included in an NCAA-Branded Videogame originally published or distributed from July 21, 2005 through [preliminary approval date], or (2) was listed on such a roster from May 4, 2003 and whose jersey number or photograph was used in such a videogame.

NCAA Videogame Settlement: All NCAA Division I football and men's basketball players who were (1) listed on a roster published or issued by a school whose team was included in an NCAA-Branded Videogame originally published or distributed from May 4, 2003 through [preliminary approval date], and (2) whose assigned jersey number appears on a virtual player in the software, or whose photograph was otherwise included in the software.

Excluded from the Classes are EA, CLC, the NCAA, and their officers, directors, legal representatives, heirs, successors, and wholly or partly owned subsidiaries or affiliated companies, Class Counsel and their employees, and their immediate family members, and the judicial officers, and associated court staff assigned to the cases involved in these settlements and their immediate family members.

The definitions above are summaries, and are not the exact definitions found in the Settlement Agreements. The specific definitions are set out in more detail in the Settlement Agreements, which are posted on www._____settlement.com. (See EA Videogame Settlement Agreement ¶¶ _____ and NCAA Videogame Settlement Agreement ¶¶ _____.)

6. What is an "NCAA-Branded Videogame"?

"NCAA-Branded Videogame" means every edition of NCAA Football, NCAA Basketball, and NCAA March Madness (on any videogame platform) originally published or distributed by EA between May 4, 2003 and [preliminary approval date].

7. I'm still not sure if I am included.

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can get free help by contacting the Settlement Administrator using any of the methods listed in Question 27.

You are not required to pay anyone to assist you in filing a claim or obtaining information about the settlements.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS—WHAT YOU GET IF YOU QUALIFY

8. What do the proposed settlements provide?

Both proposed settlements provide for cash payments to eligible Class Members.

The EA Videogame Settlement has a total Settlement Fund of $40 million. The NCAA Videogame Settlement has a total Settlement Fund of $20 million.

Each Settlement has a proposed Distribution Plan. Under both Distribution Plans, each Settlement Fund will first be used to pay for (1) the costs of class notice and administration, and (2) the attorneys' fees, expenses, and incentive awards approved by the Court (see Question 20 for more details on these awards).

The remainder of the Settlement Fund for each settlement (called the “Net Settlement Fund”) will then be distributed to qualifying Class Members, as described in Question 9.

9. How will claim payments be calculated?

Payments to qualifying Class Members will be made based on each Class Member's share of that settlement's “Net Settlement Fund.” A Class Member's share will be determined by the number of “Points” earned by the Class Member, as explained below. See Question 11 for details on how to get a payment if you are eligible.

Unless you exclude yourself (see Questions 16–18), or decide to only make a claim in one settlement (see the Claim Form), your claim will be evaluated under each settlement's Distribution Plan (below). Thus, you may be eligible to receive a payment from both settlements for the same edition (year) of a Videogame.

Distribution Plans

The Distribution Plans in both settlements are based on “Points.” The value of these Points is not fixed at any particular dollar amount, but will vary depending on how many people submit valid claims in each of the settlements. See Question 10 for examples of how payments might vary.

The amount of Points you earn depends on which “Category” you fall into in the Point Tables below, which is in turn based on the years you played, and exactly how your likeness was (or wasn't) used in the Videogames. The Point Tables list how many Points you get under each settlement. To understand the tables, you need to read the definitions below.

Definitions:

- Roster Appearance: You have a “Roster Appearance” if your name was listed on the roster of a team that was included in any NCAA-Branded Videogame published or distributed from July 21, 2005 to [preliminary approval date], and you don't have an Avatar Match or Photograph Use as described below. (This applies to the EA Videogame Settlement Only, and not to the NCAA Videogame Settlement.)
- Avatar Match: To have an Avatar Match, both of the following must be true:
 - a. Your name was listed on the roster of a team that was included in any NCAA-Branded Videogame published or distributed from May 4, 2003 to [preliminary approval date]; and
 - b. Your assigned jersey number appears on a virtual avatar from that same team in the Videogame.
- Photograph Use: Your photograph was used in an NCAA-Branded Videogame.
- Class Counsel and the Settlement Administrator will use a database they compiled to determine Avatar Matches as well as Photograph Uses in each Videogame. (More detail on the various ways they will determine a “match” can be found at www._____settlement.com.)

Point Table
Category	Description	Years	Number of Points
			Under EA Settlement	Under NCAA Settlement
A	Roster Appearance	2005–2014	1 point	0 points
B	Avatar Match or Photograph Use (if you have both, only one will count for each edition of the Videogame)	2003–2005	1.8 points	1.8 points
C	Avatar Match or Photograph Use (if you have both, only one will count for each edition of the Videogame)	2005–2014	6.6 points	6.6 points

Remember, you can get Points from both settlements. So, for example, if you have an Avatar Match for the 2006 edition of the Videogame, you would get 6.6 Points from each settlement.

Other Potential Payments Under the Settlements

If you are a Class Member and submit a valid Claim Form but do not qualify for any Points under the above system, then you will receive a flat $100 payment from each settlement in which you are a Class Member.

If the Net Settlement Funds are not completely used up after making payments to all Class Members who submit claims, any remaining funds will be used to make additional payments to qualifying Class Members who did not submit claims. More detail on this can be found in the Settlement Agreements at www._____settlement.com.

10. How much will my payment be?

The exact amount each qualifying Class Member in each settlement will receive cannot be calculated until (1) the Court approves the settlements; (2) amounts are deducted from the Settlement Fund for notice and administration costs, attorneys’ fees and expenses, and any Class Representative Incentive Awards; and (3) the Settlement Administrator determines the number of Class Members who have submitted valid claims and, after checks are issued, who cashed their checks. See Question 9 for the general method of calculating claims payments.

Estimated Payments

Below are charts prepared by Class Counsel with estimated payment amounts for each Category. The charts are broken down by “Claims Rate,” which means they provide an estimate of how much each Category gets if a certain percentage of Class Members in that category submit valid claims. So a 50% claims rate means that 50% of the possible claims were submitted in that Category. We do not know what the Claims Rate will be for either settlement. The calculations below are examples only.

Keep in mind that these amounts are how much a Category gets per Videogame Edition (Year), so if you played for multiple years, your total payment will be the payment amount below multiplied by the number of years you fall into that Category. See the “Examples” below to see how this all might affect an individual claim.

Claims Rate	100%			50%			25%			10%
Category	A	B	C	A	B	C	A	B	C	A	B	C
Payment per Year	$26	$74	$270	$52	$147	$541	$104	$295	$1,081	$259	$737	$2,703

Examples

To give you a sense of how the Distribution Plans will work for an individual Class Member, below are some examples, developed by Class Counsel, of potential Class Members and their estimated payments.

Player 1
Player 1 was the starting quarterback listed on the roster at the University of California for four seasons from 2007 through 2011. His jersey number appeared on the UC team in the 2007, 2008, 2009, and 2010 editions of EA’s NCAA Football Videogame, so he has an Avatar Match for each of those years, and his photograph appeared in the 2011 and 2012 editions of the Videogame. Assuming a 25% Claims Rate, Player’s 1 Total Estimated Payment would be $6,486 .
Videogame Edition	Category	Estimated Payment Per Edition	Total Estimated Payment
2007	C	$1,081	$6,486
2008	C	$1,081
2009	C	$1,081
2010	C	$1,081
2011	C	$1,081
2012	C	$1,081

Player 2
Player 2 was on the roster at the University of California and his jersey number appeared on the UC team in the Videogame for four seasons from 2004 through 2007. Assuming a 25% claims rate, Player 2’s Total Estimated Payment would be $2,752 .
Videogame Edition	Category	Estimated Payment Per Edition	Total Estimated Payment
2004	B	$295	$2,752
2005	B	$295
2006	C	$1,081
2007	C	$1,081

Player 3
Player 3 was on the roster at the University of California and his jersey number appeared on the UC team in the Videogame for two seasons from 2003 through 2005. Assuming a 25% claims rate, Player 3’s Total Estimated Payment would be $590 .
Videogame Edition	Category	Estimated Payment Per Edition	Total Estimated Payment
2003	B	$295	$590
2004	B	$295

Player 4
Player 4 was on the roster at the University of California for four seasons from 2004 through 2008, but neither his jersey number nor his photograph appeared in any EA Videogame. Assuming a 25% claims rate, Player 4's Total Estimated Payment would be $312 .
Videogame Edition	Category	Estimated Payment Per Edition	Total Estimated Payment
2004	NONE	$0	$312
2005	A	$104
2006	A	$104
2007	A	$104

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT—SUBMITTING A CLAIM FORM

11. How can I get a payment?

To be eligible to receive a payment under one of the settlements, you must (1) be a Class Member of that settlement; (2) you must not have excluded yourself from that settlement; and (3) you must submit a valid and timely Claim Form, as described below.

You only need to submit one Claim Form; your claim will be automatically be evaluated under both settlements. If you wish to make a claim under only one of the two settlements, you should check the appropriate box on the Claim Form. (See the enclosed Claim Form for more details.)

If you have excluded yourself from both settlements, you are not eligible to make a claim under either settlement. If you have excluded yourself from one settlement, you are not eligible to make a claim under that settlement, but you are still eligible to make a claim under the other settlement (the one from which you did not exclude yourself).

You should read the instructions on the Claim Form carefully, fill it out to the best of your ability, and then sign it as indicated on the Claim Form (online claim forms will require your electronic signature). You do not need to have your signature notarized by a Notary Public, but you will be affirming to the best of your knowledge, information, and belief that the information you provided on the Claim Form is true. If you need help filling out the Claim Form, you should call the Settlement Administrator.

Filing a Claim Online

You may fill out a Claim Form online at www._____settlement.com.

Filing a Claim by Mail

You may also submit your Claim Form by mail. A Claim Form is included in this mailing. You may also get a copy of the Claim Form online at www._____settlement.com, or by calling 1-____-____-____, or by sending an e-mail to _____ and asking for one. If you choose to mail your Claim Form, you must mail the Claim Form to the Settlement Administrator at the address indicated on the Claim Form. It must be postmarked no later than _____.

Do not send a copy of the Claim Form to the Court, the Judge, or the Defendants.

Please note that, with a few exceptions, only a Class Member can submit a Claim Form. The only exceptions are that Claim Forms may be submitted on behalf of an individual Class Member by his “Legally Authorized

QUESTIONS? CALL 1-____-____-____ TOLL-FREE, OR VISIT www._____settlement.com.

Representative.” A Legally Authorized Representative means an administrator/administratrix, personal representative, or executor/executrix of a deceased Class Member’s estate; a guardian, conservator, or next friend of an incapacitated Class Member; or any other legally appointed person or entity responsible for handling the business affairs of a Class Member. If you have a personal lawyer, your lawyer may assist you with your Claim Form, but you must personally sign the Claim Form, unless the lawyer is your Legally Authorized Representative.

You also cannot submit a Claim Form as part of a group effort, or on behalf of a class of persons.

12. When will I get my payment?

The payments will be mailed to eligible Class Members who send in valid Claim Forms on time, after the Court grants “final approval” of the settlement, after any appeals are resolved, and after the Claim Forms are processed.

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing on _____, at _____ .m. (Pacific time) to decide whether to approve the settlements. If you want to attend the hearing, keep in mind that the date and/or time may be changed after the time of this Notice, so you should check the settlement website (www._____settlement.com) before making travel plans.

If the Court approves the settlements (see Questions 23–25), there may be appeals. It’s always uncertain whether these appeals can be resolved, and resolving them can take time. Please be patient. You can check for updates and other important information by using any of the methods listed in Question 27.

13. What if I disagree with the amount of my payment?

There is a process in the settlements for you to object to the determination of the amount of your claim payment, or to object if the Settlement Administrator determines that you don’t qualify for a payment at all. You will get further details in the letter you receive about your settlement claim. Essentially, if you, the Settlement Administrator, and Class Counsel cannot agree on how much you should receive under the settlement, you may appeal as described in the Settlement Agreements. (See EA Videogame Settlement Agreement ¶ _____ and NCAA Videogame Settlement Agreement ¶ _____.)

14. What am I giving up to get a payment or stay in the settlements?

Remember that the two settlements are separate. Unless you exclude yourself from a particular settlement, you are staying in the Class or Classes described in that settlement, and that means that you can’t sue or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendants in that settlement about the legal claims being settled in that settlement. It also means that all of the Court’s orders will apply to you and legally bind you.

Because the two settlements are separate, the “releases of liability” in the two settlements are also separate, and apply to different Defendants and to different claims. So, under the EA Videogame Settlement you will not “release” the NCAA from any liability, and under the NCAA Videogame Settlement you will not “release” EA or CLC from any liability.

The details of the two releases are set out in more detail in the Settlement Agreements, which are posted on www._____settlement.com. (See EA Videogame Settlement Agreement ¶¶ _____ and NCAA Videogame Settlement Agreement ¶¶ _____.) The Settlement Agreements describe the releases in specific legal terminology. Talk to Class Counsel (see the section on “The Lawyers Representing You,” Questions 19– 20 below) or your own lawyer if you have questions about the releases or what they mean.

15. Will getting a payment in either of the settlements affect my NCAA eligibility?

No. Your request for or receipt of any payment under this settlement will NOT affect your eligibility to compete in NCAA athletics.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF (“OPTING OUT”) FROM ONE OR BOTH SETTLEMENTS

If you don’t want a payment from one or both settlements, and instead you want to keep the right to sue the Defendants in those settlements on your own about the legal issues in those cases, then you must take steps to get out of the settlement. This is called excluding yourself—or “opting out”—of the Class.

16. How do I get out of one or both settlements?

The two settlements are separate, so you must opt out of each settlement separately. To exclude yourself from a settlement, you must send a letter to the Settlement Administrator by first-class mail with a clear statement that you want to be excluded, and from which settlement(s) you wish to be excluded:

- If you want to exclude yourself from the EA Videogame Settlement, say:
 - “I want to be excluded from the EA Videogame Settlement.”
- If you want to exclude yourself from the NCAA Videogame Settlement, say:
 - “I want to be excluded from the NCAA Videogame Settlement.”
- If you want to exclude yourself from both settlements, say:
 - “I want to be excluded from the EA Videogame Settlement and the NCAA Videogame Settlement.”

Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature. If you are sending the request to be excluded as the “Legally Authorized Representative” of a Class Member (see Question 11 above for the definition of “Legally Authorized Representative”), you must include any information or documents that confirm your appointment or status as a Legally Authorized Representative. Requests for exclusion must be submitted individually by a Class Member or his Legally Authorized Representative, and not on behalf of a group or class of persons. If you have a personal lawyer, your lawyer may assist you with your exclusion request, but you must personally sign it unless the lawyer is also your Legally Authorized Representative.

You must mail your exclusion request, postmarked no later than _____, to the following:

Gilardi & Co. LLC
Exclusion Request
[Address]

You can’t exclude yourself by phone, by e-mail, or on the website. If you ask to be excluded from a settlement, you will not get any money from that settlement, and you cannot object to that settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in that lawsuit. You may be able to sue (or continue to sue) the Defendants in that lawsuit.

If you have a pending lawsuit against EA, CLC, or the NCAA involving the same legal issues in these settlements, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. If you wish to continue your individual lawsuit(s), you must exclude yourself from the relevant settlement(s).

17. If I don’t exclude myself, can I sue the Defendants for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself from a settlement, you give up any right to sue the Defendants for the claims that are resolved by that settlement. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that lawsuit immediately. Remember, the exclusion deadline is _____.

18. If I exclude myself, can I get a payment from the settlements?

No. If you exclude yourself from a settlement, you will not be able to get any money from that settlement, and you cannot object to that settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in that settlement.

But remember that if you exclude yourself from only one of the settlements, you are still eligible to get money from, or object to, the other settlement, and you will still be legally bound by that other settlement.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

19. Do I have a lawyer in these cases?

Yes. The Court has appointed the law firms listed below to represent you and other Class Members in each of the two settlements. These lawyers are called Class Counsel. You will not be charged for services performed by Class Counsel. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

If you want to contact Class Counsel about these settlements, they can be reached through the Settlement Administrator by calling [_____] or sending an email to [_____].

20. How will the lawyers be paid? Are the Class Representatives being paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court for an award of attorneys’ fees and expenses in each settlement (the “Fee and Expense Award”), which will be paid from the Settlement Fund in each settlement:

Attorneys’ Fees

EA Videogame Settlement Requested Fee and Expense Award

- Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve payment from the EA Videogame Settlement Fund of attorneys’ fees of up to 33% of the $40 million Settlement Fund (i.e., up to $13,200,000), as well as for reimbursement for costs and expenses incurred in the prosecution of the lawsuits not to exceed $2,500,000.

NCAA Videogame Settlement Requested Fee and Expense Award

- Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve payment from NCAA Videogame Settlement Fund of attorneys’ fees of up to 29% of the $20 million Settlement Fund (i.e., up to $5,800,000), as well as for reimbursement for costs and expenses incurred in the prosecution of the lawsuits not to exceed $500,000.

Incentive Awards to Class Representatives

- Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve the following payments (called “Incentive Awards”) to the Plaintiffs below for their services as Class Representatives in each of the settlements. Any Incentive Award ordered by the Court will be in addition to what that Class Representative is eligible to receive from his claim.

EA Videogame Settlement

- $15,000 each for Samuel Michael Keller, Edward C. O’Bannon, and Ryan Hart.
- $5,000 each for Oscar Robertson, William Russell, Harry Flournoy, Alex Gilbert, Sam Jacobson, Thad Jaracz, David Lattin, Patrick Maynor, Tyrone Prothro, Damien Rhodes, Eric Riley, Bob Tallent, Danny Wimprine, Ray Ellis, Tate George, Jake Fischer, Jake Smith, Darius Robinson, Moses Alipate, Chase Garnham, and Shawne Alston.
- $2,500 each for Bryan Cummings, LaMarr Watkins, and Bryon Bishop.

NCAA Videogame Settlement

- $5,000 each to Samuel Michael Keller, Bryan Cummings, LaMarr Watkins, and Bryon Bishop.

The Court may award less than the amounts requested for attorneys’ fees and Incentive Awards, and has the discretion to determine how much to award. The two settlements do not depend on the amounts awarded for attorneys’ fees or Incentive Awards, which means that the settlements can still be approved and result in payments to Class Members even if the petitions for attorneys’ fees and Incentive Awards are rejected.

Class Counsel is currently scheduled to file with the Court their request for attorneys’ fees and for the Incentive Awards on _____. Settlement deadlines can change, though, so please monitor the settlement website, or call the Settlement Administrator, to see if any deadlines have changed.

OBJECTING TO ONE OR BOTH SETTLEMENTS

21. How do I tell the Court that I don’t like the settlement(s)?

The two settlements are separate, so you must submit objections to each settlement that you wish to object to.

If you’re a Class Member (or a Class Member’s Legally Authorized Representative, see Question 11), and you haven’t excluded yourself from a settlement, you can object to that proposed settlement if you don’t like it. However, you cannot object if you have excluded yourself from that particular settlement. In other words, you must stay in the case as a Class Member for that settlement in order to object in that settlement.

You can object if you don’t like any part of either proposed settlement, including the settlement’s Distribution Plan, or the request for the attorneys’ Fee and Expense Award, or the request for Incentive Awards to the Class Representatives. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve any or all of these items, and the Court will consider your views.

You cannot object in order to ask the Court for a higher payment for yourself personally, although you can object to the payment terms that apply generally to the Class. The Court can only approve or disapprove the settlements, but cannot change how much money you are personally eligible to receive from the settlement. This means that if the Court agrees with your objection, the case won’t be settled unless the parties agree to change the terms and the Court approves those changes.

To object, you must (a) mail your objection to the Settlement Administrator and (b) file it with the Court. To be timely, your objection must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator so that it is postmarked by

_____, and must be filed with the Court by no later than _____, at the following addresses:

SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Gilardi & Co. LLC [ADDRESS]
THE COURT	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• For objections to the EA Videogame Settlement: [TBD]• For objections to the NCAA Videogame Settlement: [TBD]

Note: You may mail your objection to the Court, but it must be received by the Court and filed by _____. See www._____settlement.com for more information on how to object to the settlement.

For each settlement to which you wish to object, you must include the following information:

- Your full name, address, telephone number, and signature.
- The settlement to which you are objecting:
 - “EA Videogame Settlement,” or
 - “NCAA Videogame Settlement”
- The specific reasons why you object to that settlement.
- The name, address, bar number, and telephone number of your counsel, if you’re represented by an attorney. If you are represented by an attorney, he/she or it must comply with all applicable laws and rules for filing pleadings and documents in the Northern District of California.
- State whether you intend to appear at the Fairness Hearing, either in person or through counsel.

Unless you submit a proper and timely written objection, according to the above requirements, you will not be allowed to object to or appear at the Fairness Hearing. You or your lawyer may appear at the Fairness Hearing if you have filed a written objection as provided above. (See Questions 23–25). If you have a lawyer file an objection for you, he or she must follow all Court rules and you must list the attorney’s name, address, bar number, and telephone number in the written objection filed with the Court.

Please note that any objections must be submitted by an individual Class Member, his Legally Authorized Representative, or his attorney—not as a member of a group, class, or subclass.

22. What’s the difference between objecting and excluding yourself?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you don’t like something about the settlement. You can object to a settlement only if you stay in that settlement. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you don’t want to be part of the settlement. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object, because the case no longer affects you. If you object, and the Court approves the settlement anyway, you will still be legally bound by the result.

THE COURT’S FAIRNESS HEARING

23. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlements?

The Court will hold a “Fairness Hearing” (also known as a “Final Approval Hearing”) to decide whether to finally approve the proposed settlements. The Fairness Hearing will be on May 14, 2015 at 2:00 p.m. before Judge Claudia Wilken, United States District Court for the Northern District of California, 1301 Clay Street, Oakland, CA 94612. If you want to attend the Fairness Hearing, keep in mind that the date and/or time may be changed after the time of this Notice, so you should check the settlement website (www._____settlement.com) before making travel plans.

At the Fairness Hearing, the Court will consider whether the proposed settlements and all of their terms are adequate, fair, and reasonable. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court may listen to people who have asked for permission to speak at the Hearing and have complied with the other requirements for objections explained in Question 21. The Court may also decide how much to award Class Counsel for fees and expenses, and whether and how much to award the Class Representatives for representing the Class (the Incentive Awards).

At or after the Fairness Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the proposed settlements. Because the two settlements are separate, it is possible that the Court will rule differently in each settlement, or rule at different times. There may be appeals after that. There is no set timeline for either the Court's final approval decision, or for any appeals that may be brought from that decision, so it is impossible to know exactly when the settlement(s) will become final.

The Court may change deadlines listed in this Notice without further notice to the Class. To keep up on any changes in the deadlines, please contact the Settlement Administrator or review the website.

24. Do I have to come to the Fairness Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions asked by the Court.

If you send an objection, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. So long as you mailed your written objection on time and complied with the other requirements for a proper objection, the Court will consider it. You may also pay another lawyer to attend, but it's not required.

25. May I speak at the Fairness Hearing?

Yes. If you submitted a proper written objection to the settlement, you or your lawyer may, at your own expense, come to the Fairness Hearing and speak. To do so, you must follow the procedures set out in Question 21. You must also file a Notice of Intention to Appear, which must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator so that it is postmarked no later than _____, and it must be filed with the Clerk of the Court by that same date. If you intend to have a lawyer appear on your behalf, your lawyer must enter a written notice of appearance of counsel with the Clerk of the Court no later than _____. See Question 21 for the addresses of the Settlement Administrator and the Court. You cannot speak at the Fairness Hearing if you excluded yourself.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

26. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you will get no money from either of the two settlements, but you will never again be able to sue or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendants about the legal claims involved in the settlements. To submit a Claim Form, follow the instructions described in Question 11.

What's This About?

A federal court is currently reviewing two proposed class action settlements concerning the alleged use of the names, images, and likenesses of NCAA men's football and basketball players in certain NCAA-Branded Videogames that were manufactured and distributed by Electronic Arts Inc. ("EA"). The two proposed settlements are (1) the "EA Videogame Settlement" and (2) the "NCAA Videogame Settlement."

The EA Videogame Settlement involves claims by student-athletes that EA and the Collegiate Licensing Company ("CLC") violated their legal rights by allegedly licensing, using, and/or selling athletes' names, images, and likenesses in EA's NCAA-Branded Videogames. The NCAA Videogame Settlement involves claims by student-athletes that the NCAA violated their legal rights by allegedly participating in the license, use, and/or sale of athletes' names, images, and likenesses in EA's NCAA-Branded Videogames. All Defendants deny any wrongdoing. The Court has not ruled on the merits of these claims.

The proposed settlements would resolve the claims described above against all Defendants. The EA Videogame Settlement has a $40 million Settlement Fund and would resolve the claims as to EA and CLC. The NCAA Videogame Settlement has a $20 million Settlement Fund and would resolve the claims as to NCAA.

You may be a member of one or both settlements. The two settlements share many terms and involve many of the same Class members, but are separate settlements, so you should make sure that you understand both settlements.

The Court will have a hearing on May 14, 2015, at 2:00 p.m. (Pacific time) to decide whether to approve the settlements. If you want to attend the hearing, keep in mind that the date and/or time may be changed, so you should check the settlement website before making travel plans. See below for more information.

Who's Included in the Settlements?

If you were (1) on a roster of an NCAA Division I football or men's basketball team, and that team was included in an NCAA-Branded Videogame originally published from July 21, 2005 through [preliminary approval date], or (2) you were on such a roster from May 4, 2003, and your jersey number or photograph appeared in such a Videogame, you may be a Class Member in one or both of the settlements.

There are different class definitions for each settlement. You should consult the settlement website for more detailed class definitions and more information about whether you are entitled to a payment under either settlement.

Are These Settlements Related to the Trial Against the NCAA I've Heard About?

You may have heard recently about a trial involving student-athletes (led by Ed O'Bannon) against the NCAA. Although the trial involved claims that the NCAA used student-athlete likenesses without permission, those claims were against the NCAA only for violations of antitrust laws. Also, unlike the claims being resolved by this settlement, the claims in the trial involved a request for injunctive relief (a court order discontinuing certain practices). The claims in the trial did not involve claims for cash payments for past conduct.

[Alt. A:] The trial in that case ended on June 27, 2014, and on August 8, the Court granted in part and denied in part the student-athletes' requested injunction, and the decision is available for review at [Settlement Website]. The NCAA has appealed. [Alt. B:] The trial in that case ended on June 27, 2014, and the Court ruled in favor of the student-athletes. The decision is available for review at [Settlement Website].

What Do the Settlements Provide?

Both proposed settlements provide for cash payments to eligible Class Members. You can make a claim under both settlements. More information about how payments will be calculated (the "Distribution Plan") is available at the settlement website.

In addition, Class Counsel will seek from the Court the following attorneys' fees awards: (1) EA Videogame Settlement: up to $13.2 million in fees, $2.5 million in expenses, and additional incentive awards to the Plaintiffs who brought the suits ranging from $2,500–$15,000 each; (2) NCAA Videogame Settlement: up to $5.8 million in fees, $500,000 in expenses, and additional incentive awards to the Plaintiffs of $5,000 each.

Class Counsel will file petitions for these awards on _____. The Court will decide the amounts (if any) of these awards at the Fairness Hearing (see below).

What Are Your Options?

(1) Get a Payment:

You are eligible for a cash payment if you qualify and submit a Claim Form—either online or by mail—to the Settlement Administrator by April 30, 2015. More information about how to complete and submit the Claim Form is available at the settlement website.

Requesting or receiving a payment under these settlements will NOT affect your eligibility to compete in NCAA athletics.

(2) Exclude Yourself from One or Both Settlements:

You must submit a separate exclusion (or "opt-out") request for each settlement from which you wish to exclude yourself. You may exclude yourself from one or both settlements. Your exclusion request must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator's address below so that it is postmarked by _____. More information about how to opt out is available at the settlement website.

(3) Object to One or Both Settlements:

You have the right to object to any element of one or both settlements, including the Distribution Plans and Class Counsel's requests for fees, costs, and incentive awards. You cannot object in order to ask the Court for a higher payment for yourself personally, although you can object to the payment terms that apply generally to the Class.

More information about how to object to one or both settlements is available at the settlement website.

When/Where Is the Fairness Hearing?

The Court will hold a hearing on May 14, 2015 at 2:00 p.m. (Pacific time) to consider whether to approve the settlements, including the Distribution Plans and the attorneys' fees and incentive awards. You may ask to appear at the Hearing, but you don't have to. The courthouse address is _____. The date and/or time of the Fairness Hearing may be changed, so you should check the settlement website before making travel plans.

How Do I Get More Information?

The settlement website, www._____settlement.com, contains more detailed information. You also may call the Settlement Administrator toll-free at 1-____-____-, e-mail at _____, or write to the Settlement Administrator at Gilardi & Co. LLC, _____.
