WHEREAS, on September 3, 2014, the Court granted preliminary approval to two settlements—one between the Antitrust Plaintiffs and the Right of Publicity Plaintiffs and Electronic Arts Inc. (Case No. 09-1967-CW, Dkt. No. 1177); and one between the Right of Publicity Plaintiffs and the National Collegiate Athletic Association (Case No. 09-1967-CW, Dkt. No. 1178);

WHEREAS, the Court also approved both Class Notice plans, providing further that

As part of that Class Notice plan, the NCAA will request that its member institutions and affiliated alumni associations provide to the Notice and Claims Administrator reasonably ascertainable information regarding the names and last-known addresses of NCAA football and basketball players who were listed on a roster published or issued by a school whose team was included in an NCAA-Branded Videogame originally published or distributed during the Keller Right of Publicity Settlement Class Period. To the extent that a member institution or affiliated alumni association declines to provide such information, Class Counsel shall endeavor in good faith to obtain such information, including when necessary by subpoena to such member institution or affiliated alumni association (to the extent Class Counsel have not already done so), and shall forward any information received to the Notice and Claims Administrator.

Case No. 09-1967-CW, Dkt. No. 1178, at 4.

As part of that Class Notice plan, in coordination with the NCAA Videogame Settlement, the NCAA will request that its member institutions and affiliated alumni associations provide to the Notice and Claims Administrator reasonably ascertainable information regarding the names and last-known addresses of NCAA football and basketball players who were listed on a roster published or issued by a school whose team was included in an NCAA-Branded Videogame originally published or distributed during the Settlement Class Period. To the extent that a member institution or affiliated alumni association declines to provide such information, Class Counsel shall endeavor in good faith to obtain such information, including by subpoening if necessary such member institution and affiliated alumni association for that information (to the extent it has not already done so), and shall forward any information received to the Notice and Claims Administrator.

Case No. 09-1967-CW, Dkt. No. 1177, at 5-6;

WHEREAS, in the intervening months the NCAA has requested on multiple occasions that its member institutions and affiliated alumni associations provide to the Notice and Claims

Administrator reasonably ascertainable information regarding the names and last-known addresses of NCAA football and basketball players who were listed on a roster published or issued, by a 1967 CW school whose team was included in an NCAA-Branded Videogame originally published or distributed during the respective class periods;

WHEREAS, responsive to the NCAA's requests, 156 member institutions have now provided to the Notice and Claims Administrator reasonably ascertainable information regarding the names and last-known addresses of NCAA football and basketball players who were listed on a roster published or issued by a school whose team was included in an NCAA-Branded Videogame originally published or distributed during the respective class periods;

WHEREAS, the Notice and Claims Administrator, Gilardi & Co. LLC, has sampled the information uploaded by NCAA member institutions and analyzed the quality of the addresses. Gilardi's analysis found that approximately 97 % of the addresses were valid addresses, and are therefore likely to be effective in disseminating information to Settlement Class Members;

WHEREAS, the NCAA has been in active communication with its member institutions, some of whom have informed the NCAA that they will need additional time to respond to the request;

WHEREAS, some of the NCAA's member institutions have informed the NCAA that they believe that their student-athlete contact information is protected under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") and that they will provide the requested information once they have received a subpoena for the information and the other procedural requirements of FERPA have been satisfied;

WHEREAS, no member institution to date has refused outright to disclose the requested information;

WHEREAS, the Antitrust Plaintiffs and Right of Publicity Plaintiffs are in the process of subpoening member institutions that have yet to provide information;

WHEREAS, the parties are concerned that some member institutions' responses to the subpoenas (which will yield additional information regarding the names and last-known addresses of NCAA football and basketball players who were listed on a roster published or issued by a school whose team was included in an NCAA-Branded Videogame originally published or

The following deadlines in both preliminary-approval orders (Case No. 09-1967-CW, Dkt. Nos. 1177, 1178) are extended as set forth below:
